

七夕 TANABATA STAR FESTIVAL STREAMER PAPER
A SILLY CRAFTS PROJECT FROM DAVIDSEAH.COM

TANABATA is a "Star Festival" celebrated on the 7th day of the 7th month of the Japanese lunarsolar calendar. By writing wishes on pieces of paper and hanging them on a bamboo tree on the evening of Tanabata, one hopes that the two star lovers Orihime and Kengyuu see them as they cross the Milky Way River. I cut this paper into strips, write my wishes on the back, and hang them on a convenient tree for fun.
